

SEPTEMBER
2018

We know Spring is on its way when winemaker Jan van Rooyen releases the new white wines and even better – when the foals start arriving! So although there is still a chill in the air and we hope for more rain, we love this time of new beginnings.

It's always a happy occasion when the new vintage Estate Sauvignon Blanc is released and the 2018 is no exception. If you can visit us to taste and buy, please do so, and if you can't, our SA wine shop at www.avontuurestate.co.za/wine-store-sa/ will deliver those wines right to your door!

Buy 6 bottles of our brand-new 2018 Sauvignon Blanc in the tasting room and only pay for 5.

HERITAGE WEEKEND SEES RARE TREAT

Michael and Philip Taberer had a vinoteque tasting with our winemaker to find a special release to celebrate the family's heritage at Avontuur Estate. The result is a limited number of our flagship red, Baccarat 2010, which will be available at R350 per bottle in the tasting room only from Friday 21/9 to Monday, 24/9 or whilst stocks last.

"My dad loved this wine, and after tasting how brilliantly it's aged, we felt this would be a fitting tribute," says Michael. Try it with the current release, the 2012 to really see why it's so highly rated.

According to GM Pippa Mickleburgh, she and her team are expecting some exciting new arrivals over the next few weeks, which means this busiest time of the year on the thoroughbred calendar is once again jam-packed!
